Reign of Terror in New Mexico

TUCSON, May 31—A special from Shakespeare New Mexico dated 31st, says that two reports from Silver City state that a buckboard mail driver was killed by Indians yesterday just west of Cummings. The mail was captured and destroyed. Sam Lyons station keeper was killed, a number of cattle and horses taken and a number of Mexicans killed near Cummings and Hillsboro. Fifty head of stock were killed at the latter point and a large number of horses stolen. Cook's canyon is reported to be full of Indians, and massacres are of almost hourly occurrence. There is an absolute reign of terror. East of Silver City mail communication is suspended

More Details.

ST LOUIS, May 31—Specials from southern New Mexico say that Indians attacked a party of Mexicans at old Fort Cummings on Saturday and that one man was wounded. Major Bird, paymaster, who was passing, pursued the Indians with his escort and fought them all afternoon. They retreated into Cook's canyon at night and since then five dead bodies have been found in Cook's canyon among them those of Sam J Lyons and a stage driver. All the bodies were horribly burned. A stage coach and three wagons were also burned. It is supposed that four and perhaps more persons besides those found were massacred. The Indians have left in the direction of Florida mountains. Troops arrived at the scene Saturday and took up the trail of the Indians

The North Park Hoax

CHEYENNE, May 31—The man who reported Ute depredations in North Park and the murder of Carr and Dow, his partners, by whites has disappeared. WASHINGTON CITY.

Whittaker's Side of the Case.

WASHINGTON May 31—Prof Greener arrived from West Point to-day. Of the Whittaker inquiry and the finding of the court, he says that Whittaker has been prejudiced on suppositions, assumptions, intimations and expert testimony upon which, according to military law little if any reliance should be placed. He says that the academy dexterously shifted the responsibility by having Whittaker call for a court of inquiry instead of having it come from the president. By doing so they placed Whittaker alone in the position of defendant, while had the president ordered an inquiry the whole corps of cadets, Whittaker included would have been placed on trial. Prof. Greener intends to follow the case up with the secretary of war as he has already been assured by Secretary Ramsey that opportunity will be afforded him to criticise the methods, procedure and findings of the court.

[illegible] TO BE TEMPORARY CHAIRMAN

Edmunds Positively Declines to be a Candidate—Strength of the New York and Pennsylvania Disaffection

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN

CHICAGO May 31—[illegible] a busy night, in that to-morrow will [illegible] to-morrow at the committee meeting and [illegible] will probably [illegible] Cameron's [illegible] so little faith have the opposition in Cameron carrying out any programme they may lay down that they generally seem to prefer another man. To-day's developments show that extravagant claims have been made by Grant friends respecting southern delegations and [illegible] not one of them will give Grant a solid vote. In North Carolina where Grant has [illegible] claiming everything the delegation stands [illegible] to the chairman Sherman 16, Grant 4. Alabama is likely to give several Sherman votes despite instruction. Anti Grant leaders had a long [illegible] with McPherson of Pennsylvania to-day respecting parliamentary questions likely to arise, and expect to be fully prepared. It is asserted that Cameron was handed two names which would be satisfactory to the anti-Grant men for chairman, namely Ben Harrison, Mitchell of Oregon, Hoar, Foster and Butterworth. The Blaine men from Maine are decided and enthusiastic and cannot see that it is possible to defeat their man.

There has been a stiffening of upper lips all round to-day, preparing for to-morrow which possibly may be a more important day than that on which the convention meets, for if it decides on the abolition of the unit rule Grant is almost sure to be beaten. California and Colorado delegations have arrived

The George Railroad Charges

WASHINGTON May 31—James O George has written a letter to Senator Hannibal Hamlin affirming that his charge of bribery in the Texas & Pacific legislation does not refer to Senator Blaine. He says that the papers in his possession do not implicate the Maine senator in any way. He closes with the affirmation that he has no motive except to do Blaine justice in writing this letter and leaves it to Hamlin's discretion as to what use he will make of it. It is believed here that while the George letter does not implicate Blaine still it he should be nominated it will afford an excuse for the democrats to open up all the old railroad scandal however malicious by a general investigation for campaign purposes, whereby they will attempt to cast suspicion upon the personal honesty of the republican nominee. This is suspected to be the chief motive for prolonging the session

Most of the Delegates at Chicago—The Question of the Hour.

CHICAGO May 31—A large number of delegates and others arrived this morning. At the Grand Pacific 400 were newly registered, among them Colonel R G Ingersoll who will speak to-night at the anti Grant meeting provided the weather clears up which now seems improbable. It is believed that four fifths of the delegates are now on the ground and a considerable number of the alternates. The New Jersey delegation and most of the Illinois delegates arrived this morning. Nothing definite has transpired as to the action of the national committee to-night, but the streets are full of rumors which mention a compromise, abolition of the unit rule, the deposition of Sena or Cameron and many other expedients for settling the question of the unit rule

Organization of the California Delegation

CHICAGO, May 31—The California delegation met this morning and organized by the election of Frank Pixley chairman. A D Staton was absent and Benson alternate was elected to act in his place. D S Payne of Santa Clara was selected as the choice of the delegates for a place on the committee on resolutions, with instructions to work to the insertion of an anti-Chinese plank in the resolutions of the convention. Raymond for a place on the committee on credentials and Mansfield for permanent organization. The delegation are unanimous against the unit rule and will probably be for Washburne if Blaine drops out of the contest. The Pacific coast states will select their headquarters to-day

Monday's Work—Grant's Strength Waning—Blaine Stock Coming up

CHICAGO May 31—The Grant movement has apparently spent its force and few shrewd observers here to-night consider his nomination a possibility. This impression is strengthened by the despondent air of Conkling and other third term managers. Every hour develops evidence that the Grant movement was not near as strong as its managers had asserted but one of their most serious and disheartening surprises was the discovery to-night that nineteen New York delegates had signed a written protest against Grant's nomination and pledged themselves to oppose it by all honorable means as fatal to republican supremacy. This destroys the great effect expected from New York's unanimous presentation of Grant. It is thought that two other signatures will be appended before the papers are presented for publication to-morrow. There are still other surprises in store for the Grant men. Cameron cannot hold the Pennsylvania delegation nor come as near doing so as he supposes. In other states the defection from the third term movement is spreading hourly in the presence of its unpopularity and as delegates compare notes Blaine stock is rising rapidly. Many of his friends are extremely confident of his nomination and some of the Grant men betray their fear of this result by sullen threats of beating him by combinations for Washburne. It is generally conceded that Grant cannot be nominated except on the first ballot and that seems impossible without the enforcement of the unit rule which a majority of more than a hundred is pledged to repudiate. The Sherman men are working quietly and earnestly but apparently making little progress, nor does Edmunds' support appear to gain any positive accessions to their strength. To morrow will probably give new shape to the combinations

Edmunds Positively Declines—Big Meetings in the Parks, Etc.

CHICAGO, May 31—A letter has been received by Judge Hoar from Senator Edmunds declining absolutely the use of his name as a candidate for president. The friends of Gen Grant believe this will help them, while the Vermont delegation although refusing to state who their second choice will be say they will not vote for Grant. A Massachusetts delegate said to-day that Edmunds withdrawal would add 20 votes to Sherman's score. The southern delegates have been the object of great solicitude and devoted attention for the forty-eight hours past. It is claimed by Grant men that they have gained in that quarter a claim which the friends of other candidates refuse to allow. The principal candidates have very active and very confident friends, and so far as can be learned there is no giving way in any quarter as yet. A large delegation from Philadelphia with white hats arrived to-day and were received with a band and other demonstrations of welcome. Cincinnati furnished another large delegation which was received in a like manner

The evening proved to be a fine one and at an early hour a large crowd of people poured from trains and street cars and came from extreme parts of the city en masse to attend the two meetings on the lake shore. The meeting of Grant's supporters was held on Dearborn Park and the anti Grant meeting just across the street in the base ball grounds. The speakers announced for the Grant meeting were Senators Conkling, Logan, Carpenter, S L Woodford of New York, Leonard Swett, Emory Storrs, Robt T Lincoln and S A Douglass. At the anti Grant meeting the speakers were Col R. Ingersoll, Davies of Maine, Gen Bassett, [illegible] and Wayne McVeigh, Lou Parker, Gibbon of Ohio and others

Notwithstanding the vast crowds at Lake Park attending the two meetings for Grant and anti Grant, the corridors of the hotels and streets are thronged. Intense interest is manifested and every [illegible] of the work of managers of candidates [illegible] is seized upon and [illegible] its bearing upon candidates. The greatest interest centers about the Palmer house where a secret meeting of the national committee is being held. [illegible] given out by the friends of Blaine that Senator Cameron should persist in ruling for the unit rule the national committee would [illegible] him from the chair [illegible] during the day and [illegible] of action marked out having that result [illegible] a feeling [illegible] of the members [illegible] Furman and Wm E Chandler [illegible] the deposition of Cameron and some other way towards an anti Grant organization of the convention [illegible] was hoped fo

MEETING OF THE NATIONAL COMMITTEE

Cameron Shows the Cloven Foot—Hoar to be Temporary Chairman of the Convention

[SPECIAL TO THE OREGONIAN]

CHICAGO May 31—At the meeting of the national committee [illegible] the following [illegible] was [illegible] by Mr [illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible] That [illegible] recognizes the right of each delegate [illegible] national [illegible]

[illegible] to [illegible] counted his [illegible] which [illegible] was exercised in the convention of 1876 [illegible] and was [illegible] affirmed by [illegible] tion of 1868 and has thus become a part of the [illegible] of republican conventions [illegible] a convention [illegible] remaining [illegible]

The first [illegible] The second [illegible] Mr Cameron [illegible] exception

Chaffee of Colorado [illegible] a resolution [illegible] appealed from the [illegible] that it was out of order [illegible] Some business of minor importance was then transacted and a recess was taken for fifteen minutes. The committee met again at [illegible]

Upon reassembling resolutions were adopted apportioning tickets as follows: giving each delegate and alternate 1 season ticket each; reporters 9 season tickets; each member of the national committee a ticket; to the president of the convention each day [illegible] to each delegate for distribution each day [illegible] tickets to each member of the national committee daily 9 tickets to the proprietors of the exposition building each 100; to the chairman of each state and territorial delegation 3 tickets daily; to subscribers 500 daily; to congressmen not delegates 1 each; ex congressmen 1 each; county, city, state and federal officers 1 each. The committee distributes tickets as they may elect according to the above programme

The following resolution was then adopted:

Resolved, That the following named persons be and they are hereby appointed a sub committee: Messrs Root of Illinois, New of Indiana, Enos of Wisconsin, Scott of Oregon, Cooper of Ohio, Filley of Missouri, Devaux of Georgia, Bowen of the District of Columbia and Clayton of Arkansas, with full power to execute and carry out distribution of tickets as aforesaid and tickets shall be turned over to them for that purpose

Also the following:

WHEREAS The report of the sub committee heretofore appointed having been accepted and filed, it is now

Resolved, That the committee be discharged and that a committee consisting of Root of Illinois, New of Indiana, Enos of Wisconsin, Scott of Oregon, Cooper of Ohio, Devaux of Georgia, Bowen of the District of Columbia, Filley of Missouri and Clayton of Arkansas be and they are hereby appointed to effect all necessary arrangements for the control of the hall which are or may be required of the national committee for the purposes of the convention

Geo. F Hoar was selected by the committee as temporary chairman for the convention and Col J H Roberts of Chicago was appointed temporary secretary

These nominations were made on recommendation of the committee appointed for the purpose and consisting of Wm. E. Chandler, Cooper of Ohio, Forbes of Massachusetts, Platt of New York and Jones of Nevada. The question of the unit rule was not again brought forward during the meeting which did not adjourn until a late midnight but will come up to-morrow. The anti Grant members of the committee claim a substantial victory on every point so far having displaced the committee of arrangements which was composed of Grant men entirely with a new committee in which the opposition are in the majority, and having named the temporary chairman. Cameron's ruling on the Chaffee resolution against the unit rule was that he did not decide it out of order, but simply refused to entertain it and consequently when Chaffee appealed he declared there was nothing before the house and that there could be no appeal. The contest will be renewed to-morrow over the unit rule

THE WALKER-TEAL CASE

There is such a general desire to thoroughly understand the facts in this case we have stated them below in the briefest possible form. They have been condensed from the opinion delivered by Chief Justice Kelly, as published in THE DAILY OREGONIAN of April 1879. We think the statement contains every material fact in the case bearing on the decision. We also give the ground of the decision. If any one can point out any other fact bearing on the decision we will take pleasure in adding it.

THE HONOR ROLL

Memorial Services at Vancouver

Grand Civil and Military Parade—Addresses by W H Bloomfield, Col Smallwood, Gen O O Howard and Rev Father Schramm

General Exercises, Etc

The people of Vancouver and the troops at the barracks [illegible] the ceremony of strewing flowers upon the graves of the nation's dead who are buried in the military cemetery here. This sacred and beautiful service was attended with appropriate and impressive exercises [illegible] gazed the [illegible] hundreds of people. Crowds came from the surrounding country early in the forenoon and large excursion parties from Portland and Oregon City arrived at noon [illegible] the city with a throng of visitors. Vancouver has seldom seen [illegible]

At eleven o'clock the military companies of the post attended by the 21st infantry band assembled on the splendid parade of the government grounds and were soon joined by the citizens, the companies [illegible] of Vancouver in martial order under the leadership of Dr Randolph Smith and attended by the juvenile band of Holy Angels college. The united procession then took up a line of march through the principal streets of the city and after parading an hour or more arrived at the cemetery adjoining the garrison. A salute of thirty seven guns from Major Kress battery hailed the procession as it passed the Holy Angels college, and all along its route was greeted with enthusiasm

Upon arriving at the cemetery the procession halted in front of the speaking stand, guns were stacked and the people sought the shade of the beautiful firs on every hand. After prayer by Rev M [illegible] of the [illegible] Church, music by the band, Gen Morrow president of the day introduced Mr W H Bloomfield who delivered a brief and most excellent address. He was followed by Col Smallwood who made a short sharp and appropriate speech which occasioned enthusiastic applause

Gen O O Howard followed with the following address. He was heard with profound attention

Gen Howard's Address.

Ladies and Gentlemen, Comrades: The commemoration of the bravery of the men who have fallen in defense of their country, to-day will recall memories of many events of former years which the country is too prone to forget and which many denounce as things to be forever hid in oblivion. But the nation which forgets her defenders does not deserve them. Either those men fell in a noble cause or the United States has committed a crime for which it ought to be ostracised by the nations of the world.

Last Saturday morning noticing the fact that I was advertised to make a speech on this memorial day, with the morning paper [THE OREGONIAN] in my hand my eye fell upon the words which have just been read.

"Memories which the country at large is too prone to forget and which many denounce as things to be forever hid in oblivion." This expression produced upon my mind a two fold effect

First—these memories! I began to recall the persons, friends who went bravely to the conflict and who lost their lives during the struggle

Generalities do not usually or deeply excite the emotions of our hearts. But the specific, the concrete, the recital of individual achievements, of personal exposure to suffering, to danger, to death, these things, this portraiture are always calculated from childhood to old age to stir the depths of the human soul. So in common with the sympathies of humanity as the individuals whom I loved and whose lives paid the forfeit of patriotic devotion were passed slowly in review on the field of memory my heart swelled and my eyes ran with tears.

But after this tender review of the most familiar faces among the dead I thought of the men in America who could denounce such sweet, precious, soul aspiring, heart uplifting memories as things only fit to be forever hid in oblivion and my emotions suddenly changed. With a scowl on my forehead with my teeth set, my nerves braced and my hand clenched I felt a little of the old indignation which moved men at the time of the first evil tidings of 1861, tidings that a murderous blow had been dealt, a blow that was aimed at the nation's life. I hope there are not really many to denounce these memories. If there are they may be openly enemies to be fought or secret moth eaters to be watched and guarded against, or men bred in that cowardly atmosphere where it was the fashion in war time to spit out the venom of contagion and treason and twist off into other lands to avoid the blows of patriotism and [illegible] of [illegible] or they may be a weakly milk-and-water [illegible] who never entertain any clear ideas of patriotism or principle, who always in tremulous waiting for troubles fend them off by the covered [illegible] of opiates or debaucheries

True enough the nation which forgets her defenders does not deserve them. [illegible] of us can contribute but little to prevent such forgetfulness. Do not neglect, in the midst of business activities and absorbing cares, a holiday yearly rolls around and the flattering [illegible] the [illegible] heads [illegible] while the object of this memorial service [illegible] do not forget each one [illegible] make his own contribution to the remembrance of his country's defenders.

In keeping with this thought I propose to-day to make mine a small contribution; to confine your attention to the mention of his classmates of my own at the military academy whose lives were surrendered during the rebellion

Here are some noticeable statistics: My class entered the military academy in 1850, over one hundred strong. There fell out by the way some sixty members. There were graduated in 1854 forty six members of whom seven died in the United States service before the war. In 1861 four teen joined the rebellion while twenty one were of southern parentage. Seven were killed or died in consequence of wounds in the confederate army. Five were killed in the union army. There are now left out eleven of the original forty six three of whom are here at Vancouver barracks to-day

The first of these regular officers killed in the war of rebellion was Lieutenant John T Greble killed June 10 1861 in the action of Big Bethel Virginia. His conduct was so conspicuous in gallantry that he was accorded two brevets which only his friends were able to enjoy. The honorable secretary of war promptly forwarding these as a deserved recognition of honor to his father accompanied these commissions with the following expression of his feelings: "His [illegible] distinguished character his gallant conduct, on the field where he fell and his devoted sacrifice to the cause of his country, will make his name and memory illustrious."

My own memory makes clear several choice pictures concerning Greble

First—A modest boy of 16 steadily winning his way to the affection and esteem of his classmates

The second—When a little later he formed the center of a sweet family group where mother and sisters embraced him in the circle of their love and thoughtful [illegible]

The third—A diligent artillery lieutenant among the jungles and hammocks of Florida

The fourth—While instructor at West Point he the father and head of a beautiful family—the youthful [illegible] mother and two little children. [illegible] could be no one prouder or happier

The fifth—The officer commanding his battery in desperate action, standing on the causeway looking across the bridge which led to Big Bethel. Greble is resolutely holding his position to the last silencing batteries, keeping back the enemy's advance, covering the awkward mistakes of new troops and then falling, [illegible] and with [illegible] where he had fought his battery till he had but one gun and but five of his men were left alive

The sixth picture—When his widow at the funeral lifted her little Edwin so that he could look upon the face of his father [illegible]

[illegible]

The seventh—The desolate home [illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible] came to the throne [illegible] Davis [illegible] he had [illegible] hope to make a [illegible] with the utmost tenacity [illegible] the inspiration and [illegible] of a strong man [illegible] who could [illegible] appropriate command [illegible] Kill patrick and [illegible] cavalry leader

Better than life the plain truth did he love
Prouder to honor than other men did [illegible]
[illegible] whenever he did move
[illegible] his handsome words did begin

His spirit revolted at forging of chains
Gentler than woman to the weak and oppressed
Scorn at dishonor and treason he disdains
[illegible] he fights to his rest.

The fifth martyred classmate who fell in loyal service is Colonel Edgar O'Connor. He became the colonel of the second regiment of volunteers raised in Wisconsin. He brought his regiment into the field after the first battle of Bull Run and had but one year of service in the rebellion when he was killed the 28th of August 18[illegible] in a combat at Groveton Virginia. O'Connor was a young man of a happy temperament. Fat, hearty, companionable, humorous—he was of the kind that took deep root in social life. He left the army after a service of four years on the frontiers to occupy himself in civil life when the sudden rebellion called him as it called other army men who loved their country again to join the service. So after hearing of our first terrific defeat at Bull Run he hastened to Washington with a choice regiment raised in his own neighborhood. Self possessed, phlegmatic, imperturbable with sufficient discipling power in his composition for the use of war—these elements coupled with his jovial temper made him a capital and successful commander of volunteers. But in the very beginning, at the age of 3[illegible] his pleasant spirit suddenly ascended to join our other companions in the realms of the departed

The names of our confederate classmates that I will not give on this occasion who went into the battle fourteen strong and came out but seven I am familiar with. They were brave men. I have for these dead many precious and tender remembrances. I wish imitating Grimes Davis of Mississippi that they had not raised their hands against the republic. But I have no hard words for them. I would probably myself have been weak enough to have been controlled by local influences and strong friends had I lived in a slave state and particularly had I been educated to put implicit faith in the pernicious, disintegrating social doctrine of state supremacy. It is hard even for a northern man who has been from his youth thoroughly imbued with the idea that state supremacy is in our constitution and essential to liberty. I say it is hard for him so imbued with pernicious teaching to understand the propriety of attempting to save our government against internal attack. Patriotic men who suffered the loss of property and of blood to prevent the destruction of the government and to rid it forever of the horrible incubus of slavery are often now a days confused, mortified and chagrined when some of brightest statesmen assure them that they have been violating the American constitution from 1861 till to-day, that they are in favor of monarchical tendencies, that they would snatch from the people the liberties which are dear to them and more in this land than any other. In brief they declare that the habit of war has overturned forever the habit of peace, and in effect, submerged and destroyed beyond recovery the life and power of the old constitution. So day by day, week by week, year by year the struggle goes on among the political managers to take from us all that we thought we had gained by the war, namely the constitution redeemed, the laws readjusted, the judiciary purged and liberty become universal and secured in the eternal anchorage of right. This cry against the honest patriotic men of the land is a false one

If a man's dwelling is on fire he may be obliged to step outside of it and submit to temporary injuries from the firemen and the floods of water in order to preserve it.

A vessel in a storm carrying a heavy canvass must furl her sails and render much of her moving machinery inoperative to save herself from utter wreck.

So, when the terrible struggle of war was upon us and before the winds of commotion engendered by war had died away our statesmen were obliged to step outside of the constitution in order to save the constitution, to render temporarily inoperative much of its machinery which now, it is plain was only furled and folded up, never destroyed. It has again in all its force become essential to the existence and progress of the republic

With such sentiments filling our minds and hearts, let us reassure ourselves that in suppressing the rebellion we accomplished a good work that our patriotic dead did not die in vain; that while we are not perfect and may improve even the constitution as well as the laws of our country still let us congratulate ourselves, our children and the lovers of freedom throughout the world that this American republic rests on the permanent foundations of a written constitution, and rises into view with the strong masonry of her structure elevated by the will of an intelligent people and with an elevated watch tower carrying the lights of principle and knowledge and wisdom which are indeed the beacons of hope to the thinking men of every nation of the globe

At the conclusion of Gen Howard's address, Rev Father Schramm was introduced. He spoke in an eloquent and patriotic strain for a few moments, and in closing took Gen Morrow by the hand and said:

And while I hold the hand of your commander may Almighty God bless the union, the union between soldier and priest and may it exist forever.

Gen Morrow then said—Ladies and Gentlemen: We have here concluded our ceremonies. Father Schramm will give us a benediction and then we will strew with loving hands the graves of our comrades and let us all participate in this pleasing and sacred duty

The graves of the cemetery were then decorated with elaborate floral gifts after which the troops marched to the barracks and the people dispersed. The celebration was successful in every particular

THE PRECIOUS METALS.

A writer in the June Atlantic argues that the mining of the precious metals on the American continent will become a still more prominent industry than now and claims that whoever looks over the whole field of American precious metal mining will be convinced that this industry is certain to make a very rapid growth in what is left of this century. He also comes to the conclusion that the production of silver is destined to increase very rapidly for a score or so of years to come, provided the demand for this much slandered metal does not fall too far short of the supply. Beyond a brief term this yield of silver will surely diminish, especially if there is any considerable lowering in its price. The observant eye can also see that the production of gold is likely to be extended to many new fields, and that the yield of this metal is in the future likely to be rather more steady than that of its bulkier sharer in the greed of men. North America and the twin continent on the south are doubtless to be the great producers of precious metals in the future; their store of silver must be of greater value at the present price of this metal than their store of gold. If the world continues to use silver in the coming century as it has in the past thirty centuries, there is a fair prospect that our continent will win some thousands of millions from its silver-bearing lodes. Even if we make gold alone a basis of exchange, the production of this metal will no doubt give us a larger mining industry than any other country can expect to gain.

W. P. LORD.

A number of the papers of the state have made an error in printing the name of the candidate for judge of the supreme court. It is as it stands above, and not N. P. nor W. B., as we have seen it printed. He is one of the ablest lawyers in the state, nearing as we should judge 40 years of age, having resided for eight or ten years at Salem, the best citizens of which of either political party will vouch for his honesty and integrity. His success at the bar demonstrates his knowledge of the law, and his non-partisan disposition, as well as his dignified bearing, designate him as eminently fit for a judge.

JOHN B. WALDO.

The people of this state know John B Waldo, they know his father and his family, and that no stain or suspicion of dishonor has ever attached to the name of any of them. Born and reared in this state, he is thoroughly identified with her interests and is a true Oregonian. His pride is in his profession, of which he is a close student, and his opinion on points of law are now regarded with respect by the oldest authorities in the state. There is no doubt of his ability, while there are none of his integrity.

Since it became apparent to the democrats of Linn county that their candidates for state senator and county clerk were to be beaten, they have turned loose their hounds of defamation and slander upon Capt. Humphrey and Mr. Baum the republican candidates respectively for those positions. Fearing that the attacks on these gentlemen in the local papers might not have weight with the voters of the county, the villifiers have called to their aid the democratic organ in this city, and it lends its feeble aid to swell the stream of lying abuse which the organ at Albany has kept pouring out for the past six weeks. Were not the authors of the falsehood printed about Humphreys and Baum so well known the result might be disastrous to them, but as the people of Linn county know most thoroughly the source of the slanders and the motives which set them in motion, we believe they will rebuke such unwarranted and unjustifiable abuse of men whom they have known as respectable, upright citizens as long as they have Messrs Humphrey and Baum.

Hon. F. Mallory, who has been canvassing the state on behalf of the republican ticket, has been assailed by the democratic papers with whatever little force their limited capacity is master of. Their attacks fall harmless on Mr. Mallory, who, by his eloquence, is more than a match for all such penny-a-liners like his assailants as could stand in a ten-acre lot. Because the attacks upon him are unworthy of notice, and because he is fully able to defend himself and every position which he takes, we have not referred to his excellent service to the party before. Those who heard him at Salem last Saturday pronounce it one of the best of the campaign, and a masterpiece of eloquence and argument. His speech in this city last night was also sound in republicanism, eloquent in manner and convincing in argument.

The people of this county who have had business with the county, know that Mr. Borthwick thoroughly understands the duties of a county clerk, and that he will show no partiality to anybody in matters that may be left to his judgment and care. His record for honesty is equal to that of any man, and his ability is not questioned. His opponent, Mr. Whitehouse, is gentleman in every sense of the word, has had no experience in such matters. He has long occupied a position as secretary and bookkeeper for a wealthy corporation and can probably remain there until he desires to vacate, but there will be no occasion for him to leave the gas and water company this year.

There is the greatest inducement for republicans to stand together in this election on the republican ticket for legislators; for while members of the party may differ widely as to their preference for U. S. senator they must all remember that upon the apportionment to be made by the next legislature will depend the chances of every candidate for that position in the party. Republicans ask nothing in the apportionment that is not just and fair and constitutional, but they do ask that the apportionment of members of the state into legislative districts be such as will give to each county that representation to which its population entitles it.

When Hon. R. Stott was a candidate for prosecuting attorney of this district, some democrats who supported him suggested that tickets with all the democratic candidates' names upon them, except that of F. R. Strong, Esq., Mr. Stott's opponent, be sent into the country precincts, as many of them might find their way into the ballot box. The matter came to Mr. Stott's ear and he at once denounced it as an unfair and disreputable trick, which, under no circumstances, he would countenance or support, and the project was dropped. Will Judge Bellinger say and do as much?

No right minded person really censures or blames an attorney for doing all in his power to win his case, consistent with honor. The attorney is expected to compass every means within his reach, with the above restriction, to gain his points with the courts. But that the courts should be so constituted that an inducement be held out to litigants to employ one attorney in preference to another on account of any influence which the one employed may have or be supposed to have with the court is wrong, and once such a state of affairs is brought about the esteem in which our courts are held is gone forever.

Republicans of Multnomah county ought, before deciding to erase the name of a single candidate for the legislature from their ticket, to consider the important matters which will come before the law-making power of Oregon at its next session? That the next session will be quite as important as any in which a senator is to be elected, is seen at once, when it is remembered that upon the action of the legislature in redistricting the state will depend all the hope which republicans may have of electing an United States senator for the next ten years at least.

Whenever any success has been achieved in Multnomah county by the democrats for the past ten years, it has inured entirely to the benefit of Ben Norden and S. J. Jeffery. They have been a ring into which no other member of the party has been admitted. There is no doubt that if the law and the voters did not prohibit it these two men would take all the nominations and all the offices as well as pocket all the pay.

Democrats who were at first confident that Ben Norden would be elected, even admitting the defeat of the rest of the ticket, begin to feel very shaky. It is said that the attempts to swap off other candidates to secure votes for Mr. Norden do not meet with the response with which they were received in former years, and that this game will not win this year.

Geo. C. Sears assessed this county last year, and the records will show that as good an assessment was never made before. An assessor who will stand out against the men who desire to shirk their just proportion of the public burden is the man for the people, and Sears has done this. Hence some of the attacks on him.

Judge Bellinger's friends made a great mistake in sending out the bogus tickets, which is likely to injure the infinitesimal chances which he had of running his opponent a close race in this contest. The republicans throughout the district will see to it that Raleigh Stott's name is on their tickets.

TUESDAY MORNING, JUNE 1, 1880.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.

WASHINGTON, June 1—12:30 A. M.—For Pacific coast, clear and partly cloudy weather.

RALLY IN EAST PORTLAND.

There will be a republican rally at Neppach's hall, East Portland, this (Tuesday) evening. Dr. Meyers, Judge Stearns, and several other good speakers will be there. Ladies are invited to be present, as well as citizens from this side.

CITY.

EXECUTIVE CLEMENCY.—His Excellency Governor Thayer has recently commuted the sentence of W. H. Crawford from Lane county, sentenced for burglary from Lane county for five years from April 25, 1879, on account of extreme youth, doubt as to commission of crime and on condition that he leave the state and not return during the period for which he was sentenced, May 27, 1879. Frank Hayes sentenced from Wasco county for one year from July 1, 1879, for the crime of larceny, reason assigned, extra service and term of sentence being about expired. Also Chas. Mann sentenced June 25, 1879, for larceny in Multnomah county for the term of one year; reason assigned, uniform good conduct and term of sentence being nearly expired.

IN LONDON.—Under date of May 3d a letter has been received from the old and well known actor George B. Waldron, who was manager of Oro Fino Theater for nearly two years. He is now in London playing in Joaquin Miller's new piece, "The Danites," and supported by a full American company. He writes very encouragingly and declares that the piece and company have made a grand "hit." The London press speak in complimentary terms of "The Danites" and the manner of its rendition. Mr. Waldron speaks of having met in London Mr. John Jack, Miss Annie Firman and Mr. Cyril Searle, all of whom have visited Portland. The many friends of Mr. Waldron will be gratified to learn of his success in the "world's metropolis."

TYPOGRAPHICAL ERROR.—In Friday morning's issue a typographical error made us say, in the court reports: "Oswego Iron Works, bankrupt; assignee directed to sell property," &c. It should have read, "Oregon Iron Works, bankrupt;" and was the confirmation of sale of the property of that company at Albina to Smith Bros. & Watson. The Oregon Iron Co. at Oswego is an entirely different institution, and instead of being bankrupt is vigorously pushing its business by doubling the capacity of its furnace, building a railroad to its ore beds and otherwise adding to its facilities for increasing its production of iron.

"THE ACTOR'S ART."—We have received the March number of the Victorian Review, a monthly magazine published at Melbourne, New South Wales, which contains a long article entitled "The Actor's Art." The contribution is from the pen of that highly gifted and accomplished lady, Miss Augusta L. Dargon, not unknown to this public. Those who have so greatly admired the histrionic abilities of Miss Dargon will doubtless be surprised to learn that she also wields a very graceful pen. She is a lady of fine literary culture, and is not an infrequent contributor to the press.

INFORMATION WANTED.—A gentleman of this city has received a letter from J. P. Reichenbach, of Parrott & Co., San Francisco, California, asking for information of John Engel, who was, according to his letter of April 25th, in the employ of the Eureka Packing Company at Eagle Cliff. The writer says: By reason of the recent storm and great loss of life in the Columbia river his mother fears the worst, and feels nearly distracted. Any information concerning him will be thankfully received.

PIONEER REUNION.—Extensive preparations are being made for the Pioneer reunion which will be held in this city on June 15th. The reunion will be held at Mechanics' Pavilion, which is capable of holding an immense crowd. It is expected that hundreds will be present from all portions of the state. During the day there will be a sailing and rowing race. Suitable prizes will be awarded the winning boats. These prizes will soon be on exhibition.

DELEGATES ELECTED.—At a recent meeting of the First Congregational church in this city, the following persons were elected delegates to the State Congregational Association, which will meet at Astoria Thursday morning, June 17, 1880: L. M. Parrish, George F. Lent, I. F. Stiles, L. A. Macrum, Mrs. L. M. Parrish, Mrs. E. A. Torrey, Mrs. George Best, Mrs. J. H. Atkinson, Mrs. W. F. Jones.

GOING FORWARD.—Some days ago the excavation for the new building to be constructed at the corner of Alder and Second streets was completed, and brick masons are engaged in putting up the walls. The excavation for the foundation of the new building on Washington street near the corner of Second will soon be finished and brick work soon follow.

McCULLY-PATTON.—The social circles of Salem were convulsed last evening by the festivities incidental to the marriage of Jno. D. McCully, Esq. and Miss Lillian E. Patton, only daughter of Hon. T. McF. Patton, of that city. The ceremony took place at the M. E. church and was followed by an immense reception at the residence of the bride's parents.

APPROACHING COMPLETION.—The masonry work of the third story of the large building at the corner of Front and Stark streets, occupied by Hodge, Davis & Co., is rapidly approaching completion. Soon the last ringing stroke of the trowel will be heard. When finished it will be one of the most handsome and pretentious buildings in Portland.

ANNUAL OUTDOOR FETE.—At a meeting of the Sunday school association of the Unitarian church yesterday evening, a committee was duly appointed to arrange time and place for the children's annual picnic. Saturday, June 12th, weather permitting, was decided upon; the place is yet to be selected.

FAIRY OPERETTA.—We understand the ladies committee having in charge the above performance have already disposed of between three and four hundred tickets from which fact we judge there will be as large a crush as at the Esther performance.

DRAMATIC READINGS.—Mrs. D. F. Smith the accomplished elocutionist, will give an entertainment this (Tuesday) evening at Reed's opera house, Salem. A very attractive programme will be presented. We bespeak a crowded house for the little lady.

ELECTION.—The following officers were elected last Saturday evening by Orient Lodge, No. 17, I. O. O. F., East Portland, to serve the coming term: W. G. Karns, N. G.; I. N. Sanders, V. G.; N. B. Crane, R. S.; James Aiken, treasurer.

SAILING POSTPONED.—Yesterday was the regular sailing day of the steamer Oregon, but for some reason the date has been postponed one day. The steamer will sail for Portland this forenoon with freight and passengers.

Y. P. A.—The regular meeting of the Young People's Association will be held this (Tuesday) evening at the Baptist church, commencing at 8 o'clock sharp. Every one invited and made welcome.

L. R. S.—The Ladies Relief Society will meet this (Tuesday) afternoon at 2 o'clock in the basement of the Presbyterian church.

COMMENCEMENT AT PACIFIC UNIVERSITY, FOREST GROVE

The exercises began on the Sabbath with the baccalaureate sermon by Rev. G. H. Atkinson, D. D., in regard to the difference between the philosophy which God gives in the Bible and that of which man is the author, especially the philosophy which Christ met. He quoted largely from standard authority to show how little philosophers, unaided by the Bible, knew; that even some of the wise men of Greece did not know as much in regard to many points as our school children, some of them attributing the origin of all things to water, because they saw water in all things; others to fire, and others to other things as foolish. Others—as Socrates, Plato and Aristotle—caught some idea of a deity as the great cause, but their ideas were dim and made the world but little better morally. Yet just in proportion as they had come near Bible truth had their ideas lived and spread.

It was a scholarly sermon showed much thought, research and study and was fitted to the occasion. It caused some at least of the hearers to feel more plainly than ever that the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God, and that the foolishness of God is wiser than man. COM.

MANUFACTURING FINE CIGARS.—A. P. Hotaling & Co are having manufactured a number of choice brands of cigars which for richness of flavor, choice Havana leaf, and finished workmanship, far excel any cigars ever brought to this market. Their "Fatinitza," "Guardian," and "El Serena," are excellent, far surpassing any twelve and one-half cent cigar ever sold. The tobacco from which these cigars are made is purchased by their San Francisco house and manufactured under the immediate supervision of their own expert.

ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING OF REPUBLICANS AT TURN HALLE LAST NIGHT.

Speeches by Hon. Rufus Mallory, Mr. H. Y. Thompson and Dr. F. E. Meyer.

The simple announcement that a republican meeting would be held at Turn Halle last night was sufficient to fill the hall, every seat being occupied, and hundreds being able to find only standing room. The assemblage which included not only the old wheel horses in the party, but those who have not taken an active interest in politics for several years, showed that republicans of all clases are in earnest now, and that they feel the principles advocated by the republican party demand their most hearty support.

The meeting was called to order by Joseph Simon, who introduced Mr. H. Y. Thompson. After a few preliminary remarks, Mr. Thompson said that in the present campaign, not only local issues were involved but principles which involved the stability of this country. "Both parties could not be right," he said, "The difference between them is radical and it is important that every one should determine which party is the better entitled to his vote. It is proper to review the history of both parties." He stated that he was not present to make serious charges, but of presenting the history of the democratic party in this state. He referred to the confessions of the leaders, —particularly the Grover-Thompson, and Watkinds-Galloway letters published recently,—and added, "When courts are called on to try criminals, their own confessions are considered the strongest possible evidence. These charges reveal a state of incompetency, weakness and corruption not presented by any other party in the history of this country."

Mr. Thompson continued: "The democratic party presents what we believe to be dangerous doctrines. The letter of Governor Thayer to Judge Deady in the application of Ah Lee, the condemned Chinaman, for a writ of habeas corpus, announced as his view that it was political heresy to believe that this was a union and not a confederation of states. This same statement was made in the last state democratic convention." Mr. Thompson then read that section of the platform which denounced the recent decision of the supreme court of the United States, and after concisely and clearly reviewing the position of the democratic party with regard to the enforcement of the 14th and 15th amendments to the constitution, said: "The democratic party now says 'we are willing to abide by the decision of the 14th and 15th amendments, but we want a supreme court to construe them out of existence.' The democratic party stands upon the foundation that this is not a nation, and will not abide by the results of the war. The republican party is founded on the idea that this is a nation. It has faith in that principle; it says to the country this is right, and on this rock we plant our feet."

Mr. Thompson started out to make only two points, made them forcibly and earnestly and was warmly applauded.

After a selection by the band, Hon. Rufus Mallory was then introduced and spoke for an hour. We regret that want of space prevents the reproduction of his speech in full. No synopsis would do it justice. It was an eloquent, manly, patriotic appeal to the reason, not to the passions and prejudices of his hearers. He took for his text the following clause from the democratic address issued January 8th: "Through all the long years we have lived as a party our soul source of life and strength has been in the fact that we were a party of principles."

Mr. Mallory then reviewed the "principles" of the democratic party from 1860 down to 1880 in a masterly manner, every point being presented with clearness and force. He dwelt particularly on the attempt of the democracy in congress to enforce the doctrine of state rights by attaching such provisions to the appropriation bills last year. He closed with a brilliant tribute to the republican party, which was enthusiastically applauded.

Dr. F. E. Meyer, candidate for the legislature, was then introduced and acquitted himself very creditably in a short, good-humored speech.

Hon. W. Lair Hill, of The Dalles, who was in the audience was called for, but excused himself from making a speech. He stated that every republican in Wasco county would vote a straight republican ticket this year, and if the republicans in the valley would only do as well as their brethern east of the mountains, the entire state ticket headed by M. C. George would be elected.

Elder Love H. Jamison, of Indianapolis, a distinguished minister of the Christian church says: "Since my exposure in the army during the years of 1862, '63 and '64, my voice has been husky and stiff, and I found it difficult and generally impossible to reach D in bass. Besides this, I have been troubled with hoarseness more or less. Two bottles of the Great Oregon Cure have so far relieved me that I now can go to D below the scale in bass, and while I am not entirely restored, I do think the indications favorable for almost if not entire relief. THE OFFICE OF JUDGE.

PORTLAND, Ogn., May 31, 1880.

To THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

Because that an election of judges for the higher courts of this state is impending and because that considerable criticisms are being indulged in regard thereto, I desire to offer a few remarks upon the important subject of the judiciary. I do think that a closer adherence to the strict law by the judges than has been the regular practice for quite a number of years is necessary. A looseness has grown up in the decisions that is uncalled for and is wrong. Forbearance by the bar is a virtue in itself, but is no satisfaction to the people for outrageous or loose decisions. It is a practice with some to say the decision is right because the "judge" made it, and then that the "judge" is right because he made the decision, a species of dogmatism mostly relied on by the knaves and fools. The office of judge is an exalted one where the incumbent by the proper exercise of its functions, may entitle himself to the heartfelt gratitude of generations yet to come; but between that "proper" exercise of the high office of judge and the depths below of infamousness, there are ever lengthening and far reaching gradations of lesser merit, of varying colors and hues of right, of doubtful expedients and damnable errors which may be glazed over for a time but only for a time. Silverton, March 10, 1880.

I have used the Oregon Kidney Tea for pains in the back, and am satisfied with its effects. I have no hesitancy in recommending it as a mild and safe remedy for lame back or derangement of the kidney. C. EISENHART.

The Daily Oregonian.

TUESDAY MORNING, JUNE 1, 1880.

THE NORTHWEST.

Western Oregon.

Strawberries are ripening on the Waldo hills.

The measles are doing McMinnville thoroughly, but not seriously.

The canvass of Yamhill county will be closed at Lafayette on Saturday, the 5th of June.

J. N. Jones, who lives near Stayton, thinks he will raise 25,000 pounds of strawberries this year.

The graduating class of the State University have all passed the examinations, and are now preparing for the commencement exercises.

The closing exercises of McMinnville college last Wednesday evening were largely attended and proved satisfactory to patrons of the school.

Wesley Howell, who has lived on Howell's Prairie since his boyhood, says that the crop prospect in that section was never better than at present.

J. H. Johnson, of McMinnville, is editor of the republican, and W. H. Townsend, of Chehalem, is editor of the democratic column in the Reporter.

R. K. Denny of Beaverton had the misfortune to lose a fine young horse, the animal breaking its hind leg while at play. He estimates the loss at $200.

Pacific University this year will graduate but one student. The junior class contains but three; there are, however, a large number of pupils in the preparatory classes.

Business is brisk at Beaverton. Spring work on the farms in that portion of Washington county has been pushed forward vigorously, and farmers have in consequence some time to talk politics.

Pearson and Brants, two thieves who have been committing sundry misdemeanors in Yamhill county for some time, have been arrested and lodged in the jail at Lafayette to await the October term of court.

The dwelling of Isaac Cram, near Glenco, was burned a short time ago, leaving his family in destitute circumstances. The neighbors gave them shelter and food until the return of Mr. Cram who was absent when the fire occurred.

The Hillsboro postoffice has been made a money order office. The postmistress, Miss Mary Brown, has given bonds in $10,000 with R. Imbrie, T. H. Tongue, Dr. F. A. Bailey, W. K. Jackson, J. C. Weathered and W. H. Simmons, sureties.

The little town of Stayton contains two dry goods stores, one grocery and variety store, one drug store, a sash and door factory, two saloons, one large grist mill, one saw mill, two blacksmith shops, one carding mill, one grain separating mill, three physicians, two livery stables, two hotels—all doing a fair business.

Eastern Oregon.

A number of drunken Indians have been making night hideous in the vicinity of The Dalles recently.

Judge Perham's son, who was accidentally shot some four weeks ago, died at his home, Hood River, Thursday last.

The Inland Empire: The wool clip this season in Eastern Oregon will surpass that of any previous year. Every day car loads arrive here from above, and wagons from the country, loaded with a superior article, unload hourly. The steamers are delayed beyond the usual hour of departure nearly every morning, it being impossible to unload them by 5 o'clock, though every available man is put on the night gang.

Southern Oregon.

Roseburg is preparing to celebrate the Fourth of July.

The farmers from Elkton have delivered at Drain and shipped below something over 20 tons of bacon this spring.

Improvements now being made on the stage road through the Cow creek and Grave creek hills are progressing finely. Lieut. Symonds, now in charge has about 75 men employed to whom he is paying $1 25 per day.

Lumps of silver bearing quartz have been found on the North Umpqua. If the parties who are searching for it succeed in finding the ledge, they will have a veritable bonanza, as the specimens found assay $2063 per ton.

Snow has at length disappeared from the hills and valleys of Lake county, grass is growing, farmers are plowing, cattle find enough to eat and gardens give promise of abundance. Seven months of winter make the inhabitants appreciate this condition of affairs.

Douglas Independent: Twenty-six thousand pounds of freight left Roseburg for Fort Klamath and Jacksonville one day this week. To load this freight and have it properly dispatched made a good day's work, and that so much freight should leave the town in one day is fair proof that the trade from this place south is not decreasing.

Western Washington.

Decoration Day was grandly celebrated in Seattle under the auspices of Stevens' Post, G. A. R.

Diphtheria has appeared again in Seattle. One death from this disease took place there last week.

There are now three steamers running to Sauk City, the Chehalis, Josephine and Nellie. A fourth will be added to the route in a few days.

Edward St. Germain, of King county, and Noah Isham, of Walla Walla, died a few days since at the insane asylum at Steilacoom.

Mrs. Dolman, wife of one of the Yakima loggers sent over by General McMicken, died suddenly at Tumwater last Tuesday night. She had been in her usual health until an hour before her death.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

MONDAY EVENING, May 31.

To-day being observed as a holiday at New York and San Francisco, no commercial reports have been received.

NEW YORK GRAIN AND MERCHANDISE MARKET REPORT.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

NEW YORK, May 30.—In the general merchandise markets there have occurred comparatively few important changes; yet in numerous cases there has been no little irregularity in breadstuffs. The chief interest has been centered in the market for No. 2 winter wheat, which has been sharply cornered for this month, so that cash and May wheat have sold at from 10 to 13c above prices for cargoes deliverable on the 1st of June. In this condition of affairs almost nothing has been done in cash wheat for shippers could not pay anywhere near the prices demanded for cash and May cargoes. The market is dull and heavy throughout.

Provisions have been dull and lower.

Rio coffee—Dull, but holders firm.

Refined sugars—Quiet, although the supply is small. Crushed granulated coffee, A standard, white, extra A heavy, declined ⅛c; extra C and C, advanced ⅛c.

Teas—Dull; all business being done in auction rooms.

Hides—Rather quiet, holders firm. Sales 1000 California, private.

Leather—Moderate demand, stocks increasing.

Quicksilver—Dull at 41½@42c.

Borax—Easier; California, 10¼@10⅜c.

Foreign fruit—Very quiet, prices more or less weak; prunes fairly active and lower prices, old, 4c; new, 6@6½c.

Syrups—Dull, demand being irregular, including some purchases for the California market.

Turpentine—Firmer at close, 32½c.

Rosin—Dull and nominal.

Hops—Moderately active at old prices.

Hardware—Dull and nominal; nails dull, 3@3 10c, but round lots can be had at better terms.

Pig iron—In rather uncertain shape, buyers being impressed that considerable stock may be forced on the market by speculative holders early in the week; sales were reported of No. 1 X, 23@25c; but at close the market was firmer at 25@28c; in other metals there is nothing doing, prices easier.

Wool—Market presents a dead appearance, very little attempt being made to either buy or sell; sales of California 42 bales spring, 15@20c; 50 bales fine spring, 20c; 175 bales fall, 19@20.

Dry goods—Market very quiet in all departments.

Produce Receipts.

Produce receipts at Portland for the 24 hours ending at noon to day:

Lakeview—1 keg syrup.

Olympia—1 bx soap.

Sagamore—2 bxs dr apples, 2 sks flour, 1 bx dr peaches, 4 bxs yeast powder, 1 bx pepper, 1 cs tea, 1 bale meal, 1 pkg wheat.

Cowlitz—3 bxs oranges.

Beerbohm.

LONDON, May 31.—Floating cargoes of wheat. Cargoes on passage and for shipment, quiet. Mark Lane wheat firm. Good cargoes No. 2 spring wheat off coast per 480 lbs less usual commission, 48s 6d. English country markets steady. French country markets firm. Farmers' deliveries of wheat during the week 30,000 and 45,000 qrs. Weather in England wet and showery. Wheat arrivals off coast moderate. THE GENUINE

Hepatitis, or Liver Complaint,

DYSPEPSIA AND SICK HEADACHE.

Symptoms of a Diseased Liver.

PAIN in the right side, under the edge of the ribs, increases on pressure; sometimes the pain is in the left side; the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side; sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder blade, and it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder, and is sometimes mistaken for rheumatism in the arm. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness; the bowels in general are costive, sometimes alternative with lax; the head is troubled with pain, accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation in the back part. There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. A slight, dry cough is sometimes an attendant. The patient complains of weariness and debility; he is easily started, his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin; his spirits are low; and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it. In fact, he distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existed, yet examination of the body, after death, has shown the LIVER to have been extensively deranged.

AGUE AND FEVER.

DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, IN CASES OF AGUE AND FEVER, when taken with Quinine, are productive of the most happy results. No better cathartic can be used, preparatory to, or after taking Quinine. We would advise all who are afflicted with this disease to give them a FAIR TRIAL.

For all bilious derangements, and as a simple purgative, they are unequaled.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

The genuine are never sugar coated.

Every box has a red wax seal on the lid, with the impression DR. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS.

The genuine McLANE'S LIVER PILLS bear the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS. on the wrappers.

Insist upon having the genuine DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, prepared by Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh, Pa., the market being full of imitations of the name McLane, spelled differently but same pronunciation.

DR. PAUL M. BRENAN

The Most Successful Physician on the Pacific Coast,

IN THE TREATMENT OF ALL

CHRONIC AND DIFFICULT DISEASES

DR. BRENAN WILL GUARANTEE TO CURE any form of disease of the generative organs or private disease.

He has become an expert in the treatment of disease, weakness and derangement of the reproductive organs of both male and female, including diseases caused by the

such as SPERMATORRHEA or SEMINAL WEAKNESS, or LOSS OF PERFECT VITALITY. Nearly two-thirds of all the Chronic Diseases spring, either directly or indirectly, from some derangement of the sexual system, and yet this subject is neglected by the majority of the Medical Profession.

I know that persons who are unfortunate enough to be afflicted by any form of sexual disease have a delicacy in calling upon the proper physician in time, from a sense of modesty and sometimes from ignorance, and permit those diseases to exist until their constitutions become corrupted, their organization broken down and the hope of future happiness blighted, until death becomes a welcome messenger to carry them out of their miserable existence.

Everything strictly confidential under all circumstances.

Lost manhood perfectly restored.

Catarrh, Bronchitis, Throat Diseases, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Kidney Complaint and all Diseases of the Eye and Ear, Stomach and Bladder he can cure without fail.

Consultation Free, and a list of printed questions sent to those living at a distance who cannot consult him personally. Enclose postage stamp for list.

DR. SPINNEY

No. 11 Kearny Street,

Treats all Chronic and Special Diseases.

YOUNG MEN

WHO MAY BE SUFFERING FROM the effects of youthful follies or indiscretion will do well to avail themselves of this, the greatest boon ever laid at the altar of suffering humanity. DR. SPINNEY will guarantee to forfeit $500 for every case of Seminal Weakness or private disease of any kind or character which he undertakes and fails to cure.

MIDDLE AGED MEN.

There are many at the age of thirty to sixty who are troubled with too frequent evacuations of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight smarting or burning sensation and a weakening of the system in a manner the patient cannot account for. On examining the urinary deposits a ropy sediment will often be found, and sometimes small particles of albumen will appear, or the color will be of a thin milkish hue, again changing to a dark and torpid appearance. There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is the second stage of seminal weakness. Dr. S. will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases, and a healthy restoration of the genito-urinary organs.

Office Hours—10 to 4 and 6 to 8. Sundays from 10 to 11 A. M. Consultation free. Thorough examination and advice, $5. Call or address
